FOR IMPERIAL FEDERATION

NEW ZEALAND PREMIER PRO-POSES COUNCIL OF STATE.

Oversea Dominions in London-Asquith on Units and Unity Canada's Loyalty South African Harmony.

annon, May 23.—The delegates to the erial Conference from the oversea were welcomed at the Foreign Prime Minister Asquith at the session this morning. The prowere private. The conference asion for two hours.

Asquith opened the sitting speech in which he dwelt on the hat had taken place since the ference in 1907, particularly the of King Fdward. He expressed the deliberations of the onference wou'd conduce "to afety, honor and welfare of our eign and his dominions."

parts of the empire intended, he remain units, but units in a great in regard to imperial defence object was not aggression but the Britain more. If the United States should had come together, he declared, in one spirit only, to make the empire a more complete instrument for the futherance of British liberty.

In all five Colonial Premiers replied. sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Prime Minister, expressed Canada's warm and ever growing attachment for the British crown. Said he: "I have the happy privilege of representing a country with to grievnaces to submit and the fewest suggestions to make. We are quite and prosperous, but we recognize that there is always room for improvement and we will approach with open mind any suggestions that our colleagues may make to better the interests of the empire. If there is one principle whereit is imperial unity based upon local

The Hon. Andrew Fisher, the Australian Prime Minister, said among other things that the Commonwealth desired to be closely associated with anything in the shape of international arbitration and secured. that he would cheerfully cooperate

Sir Joseph George Ward, the Prime was his intention to urge the conference to take steps to prevent the future dis ategration of any part of the British ossessions, an occurrence of which

The Right Hon. Louis Boths. Prime Minister of the South African Union, was minster, to-day. Olive Spencer, The provinces were united, he said, and ney was the best man. orking with their hearts as well as their The bride wore a gown of white satin

Sir Edward Morris, Premier of Newundland, indorsed the expressions of good results.

ir Wilfrid Laurier's motion for an ex-The conference then got to busirepresentatives from all the self-governas tenendencies, to advise the Imperial Government upon all questions affecting McBride interests of the oversea dominions. eph referred to the United States. Guards lined the aisle. showed, he said, a tremendous change of nationality of people in a comparatively short time. It was almost wholly Anglo-American in 1848 and is now more than 50 per cent, foreign.

front the dominions. It was not an Me many sympathetically Disposed. exaggeration to forecast that Canada Australia and South Africa would each and New Zealand 40,000,000. With a view sentiments and ambitions therein, as was so worded as to admit of the adhesion as the unity of the whole, it was of any other Power to the agreement. tecessary to have a well devised scheme of the empire to be as much a Briton settlement of disputes between the two as a New Yorker emigrating to San Fran- countries without resort to war. cisco would remain an American. He had overcome his was the most disturbing feature. A proper system of imperial emigration ik of them in the empire. At the con- with sympathetic interest. usion of Sir Joseph Ward's remarks conference adjourned.

The conference then decided that all the here. sittings should be private, as the opinion was expressed that the speeches of the delegates would be hampered if news-ligrims of the Oversea Dominions; that fund." the Imperial Conference del-Lord Roberts presided. The an Pilgrims cabled their greetang the British Pilgrims in "One g of Anglo-American unity and ward Grev, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, in a despatch in the Onio Valley and southward into the east time draft of the arbitration treaty to be discussed until it had been it was warmer in the Southwast the Books. be discussed until it had been but he was sure that it opened good and practical progress thomest of all international. The object of the treaty was formulated and not multiply arbitrational could be an example to any countries of the was convinced. The object of the treaty was formulated and not multiply arbitrational formulation and origin exists and colder from Washington and Oregon eastward into the lake regions. In the St. Lawrence Valley and New England and in parts of New York and Pennsylvania. In this city the day was fair and cooler: wind, in the Southwest. The Rocky Mountain States and Wyoming and in the Guiff and central districts, and colder from Washing the analysis of New York and Pennsylvania. In the Northwest.

the temperature yesterday, as recorded by the spirators at Tuy, Spain, near the border, of some what amount of popular content is shown in the annexed from entering Portugal.

The temperature yesterday, as recorded by the spirators at Tuy, Spain, near the border, from entering Portugal.

STACHELBERG HAVANA CIGARS

Now on sale in our New York City Stores.

UNITED CIGAR STORES

suggest annexation Canada would reply as did Diogenes to Alexander, "Move away and let us have our share of the Canada, said the speaker, trusted its American neighbors, and the United States trusted Canada.

Sir Joseph Ward raised a laugh by saying that the United States should take warning and beware lest they were annexed by Canada.

After the banquet the Pilgrims and the representatives from the dominions over satisfied with our lot. We are happy the sea went to a reception and concer given by the Duchess of Marlborough, who was Consuelo Vanderbilt, at Sunderland House. Ambassador and Mrs. Reid and many other prominent Americans were present.

upon the empire can and ought to live George rejoicing that the first year of his reign had seen closer friendship between Great Britain and the United States, the cementing of which was the chief object of the Pilgrims. The King's reply contained the earnest hope that the high ideals of the Pilgrims would be amply

GREENWOOD-SPENCER.

Minister of New Zealand, intimated that Many Notables at Wedding of British M. P. Who Was Born in Canada.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, May 23.-Hamar Greenwood, M. P., who was born in Whitby, Ont., was married to Margery Spencer, an English girl, at St. Margaret's Church, Westgrateful that he was able to declare that of the bride, and Margery and Gladys concord and harmony had replaced dis- Greenwood, sisters of the bridegroom, cord, war, tears and blood in South Africa. acted as bridesmaids and Sir Harry Ver-and and heads. They looked to the with a tunic of chiffon embroidered with future with the greatest confidence. The pearls. Her veil was of Sicilian lace and rst Parliament had shown that they were she carried a bouquet of white roses and Canadian maple leaves.

There was a reception after the ceremony at the Whitehall rooms. Among olleagues, expressed satisfaction those who were present were Premier the conference and an anticipation Asquith, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, John Redmond, the Irish leader; John Burns, the president of the Local Government Board: Rodolphe Lemieux, Canadian Postmasterression of homage and loyalty to the General and Mrs. Lemieux; Sir Frederick Borden, Canadian Minister of Militia and Defence, and Lady Borden; Sir Joseph torney-General; Richard McBride, Prime Minister of British Columbia, and Mrs.

> A detachment of King Edward's Horse The couple will spend their honeymoon on the Loire.

> NOT A TRIPARTITE TREATY.

securing a maintenance of British tween the United States and Great Britain of emigration and immigration under an replied that the full text of the treaty as authority representing all the dependrawn up at Washington was still on the way. From what he knew about it he had Sir Joseph pointed out that when a not gathered that a tripartite treaty was Briton emigrated to any of the dominions contemplated. He understood from what as much was lost to Great Britain as if had been learned about the treaty that it he had gone to a foreign country. The offered every prospect of a considerable speaker wanted a citizen in any part advance in the possibility of securing the

Berlin, May 23.- A semi-official new similted that the difficulties were enor- agency confirms the report that Philander mous, but not so great as were those that Knox, the American Secretary of State, the builders of the American federation has intimated to Germany that the United States is willing to conclude an arbitra-Emigration was increasing the pro- tion treaty with this country identical statesman, Field Marshal Count Burk ertion of Britons in foreign countries, with those now in negotiation with Great

The German Government, the statead immigration would have kept the ment says, has received the intimation in securing the Russian alliance for Prus-The Kaiser has sent a message to Washington through the United States Embassy

"Hero Fund" for Beigium.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN BRUSSELS, May 23.-Andrew Carnegie, the American ironmaster, has promised

May 24. The pressure was high yesterday in the Atlantic States and south of the lake regions and the Missouri Valley. Low pressure areas, without much energy, covered the upper lakes

Laurier said that he was surnatine his arrival in England or inights because of the United States were about to the o' nights because of the to-day, warmer in southeast part, probably fair to-day, warmer in southeast part, probably fair to morrow, moderate casterly winds, becoming it would be surprising variable.

For New Jersey, unsettled to-day: probably tall to marrow: rising temperature: moderate to marrow withing temperature. Marrow to marrow withing temperature.

He admired America for western New York, local thunder showers to day, probably fair to morrow; light to ated States, he oved Great moderate westerly winds.

IRENE OSGOOD'S VERSION OF LITERARY MARRIED LIFE.

BEATINGS AND LOVE LETTERS

band-She Didn't Treat Him Like a Servant - Anonymous Letters Made Her Marry Him Separation Trial.

Special Cable Despatch to THE STY LONDON, May 23. - Irene Osgood, the uthor of "To a Nun Confess'd" and other books, took the stand to-day in the trial of her action for a judicial separation also is a writer. She testified that on Boxing day, December 26, 1908, Sherard tried to force open her door by beating on it with a huge iron poker. Mrs. Sherard fired a revolver out of the window in order to attract attention and bring help to her. According to her testimony ably a choice will be made between Rafael she was ultimately rescued in a fainting condition

Miss Osgood said her husband had often threatened to make her life a "red hell," in the provisional Cabinet as stated by her counsel in his opening address yesterday. On one occasion Sherard accused her of immoral relations with an unemployed butler and threatened that unless she gave him money he mous for his defence of the Tlahuililo would publish the story of her infamy to irrigation claim against the Mexican

On cross-examination Miss Osgood admitted that she had divorced her first husband and that her second was found present provisional Governor of Sinaloa, dead in a hotel under tragic circumstances. She denied the assertion of counsel for Sherard that she provided the to Gen. Eugenio Rascom, for twenty money for him to secure a divorce from years military commandant of the Fed his former wife in order that he might marry her. She said she had always thought he was a widower until he signed the marriage register when they were made man and wife

In reply to a question as to whether her husband worked hard before he married her Miss Osgood said: "He was very Oriental in his habits; he never worked.

Counsel for Mr. Sherard pressed the petitioner hard to tell why she had married him. Miss Osgood appealed to the Judge, who told her she must answer the The petitioner then said Sherard had brought anonymous letters to her which said that people were talking Sir Joseph G. Ward moved the appoint- Ward. Prime Minister of New Zealand, about her and she thought it best that ment of an Imperial Council of State, with and Lady Ward; Sir Rufus Isaacs. At- she should marry.

Replying to a question as to whether it was a fact that she told her husband on no account to call her "wife," as Americans disliked the word. Miss Osgood gave vent to a passionate outburst of denials, during which she said that American women were the best of wives and loved their homes.

her husband as an employee. Neither had she summomed him with a bell, as cludad Juarez. Braulio Hernandez, Sectional she would a servant, and as had been retary of the State of Chihuahua, did she summomed him with a bell as cludad Juarez. Braulio Hernandez, Sectional she would a servant, and as had been retary of the State of Chihuahua, did she would a servant, and as had been retary of the State of Chihuahua, did she would a servant, and as had been retary of the State of Chihuahua, did she summomed him with a bell as close to the strip of the The same problem was likely to con- English View of Arbitration Pact-Ger- had she summomed him with a bell, as have some day a population of 100,000,000 was asked in the House of Commons to- that all he wanted was her money. If > Osgood declared. He would treat her cruelly and then would write her charming love letters. Again he would beat her and then go into the garden, hold up his hands to her window and indulge in all sorts of theatrical nonsense.

> The case was then adjourned until to-morrow.

SUE THE KAISER WILHELM. Descendants of Count Muennich Lay Claim to $20,000,000 Estate.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN BERLIN, May 23 - Kaiser Wilhelm will shortly be the defendant in a suit in which $20,000,000 is at stake. The plaintiffs are "The Juarez racetrack will be considered the same as keno, poker and other gambling institutions," says Abram Gonzales, provisional Governor of the State of Chihuahua, who comes out flatly against gambling and bull fighting. "I understand that the club has a concession for ninety-nine years," smiled the Governor; "but we shall see about that. Perhaps there will be some loophole." two direct heirs of the Russian soldjerhard Christoph von Munnich, upon whom Frederick the Great conferred vast estates of Bugen in return for his services count Münnich fell into disgrace upon the accession of the Empress Elizabeth of Prussia and was sentenced to be executed. He was actually sent to Siberia for twenty years and was completely stripped of his estates by Elizabeth. Peter III. recalled him and he again enjoyed great power at the Russian court. On his death in 1767 Frederick the Great transferred the Bugen properties to Münnich's son, Ernst. In consequence of litigation Ernst Münnich never obtained possession of the estates and they lapsed to the Prussian Crown.

The descendants of Münnich say now that they have the royal deed of gift and are able to prove their lineage. They intend to sue in the Prussian courts. Count Münnich fell into disgrace upon The Filgrims banqueted to-night the Belgium $250,000 to establish a "hero On his death in 1767 Frederick the Great Rain continued in the take regions and fell also are able to prove theil lineage. They intend to sue in the Prussian courts.

> TO HEAD OFF CONSPIRATORS. Portuguese Cruiser Lands Marines to Prevent Royalist Incursions.

> Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LISBON, May 23. The semi-official newspaper O Mundo, says that the cruiser Adamaster has disembarked troops at Oporto to prevent Monarchist con-

The cruiser Adamaster was unable to make the as-ent of the river and at Ca- cation in the rejuvenated Mexican Cabinet, mirha she landed forty marines. They were joined by others and went to Valencia. Another warship was sent to the

The Ascania Starts From Southampton on Maiden Trip to Canada.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
SOUTHAMPTON, May 23.—The new Cunard Line steamship Ascania left here today for Canada on her maiden voyage. She is the first new boat to sail in the recently inaugurated Southampton to Canada service.

The Ascania Starts From Southampton going to the city of Mexico. He says the resignation of President Diaz is expected before the end of the present week. He expects to be in the capital by the time foreign Minister de la Barre assumes the presidency according to Dr. Gomez, the plan is for the City of Mexico. He says the control of President Diaz is expected before the end of the present week. He expects to be in the capital by the time foreign Minister de la Barre assumes the presidency of the Conada service.

FOES TO FIGHT SIDE BY SIDE

MADERISTS AND FEDERALS TO PUT DOWN MAGONISTAS.

First Fruit of Mexican Peace Pact-

Juarez Gets News of Corral's Resignation-New Cabinet Nearly Com-

EL Paso, May 23.—The first instances of military cooperation between the Federals and insurrectos, now at peace according to treaty, will be the capture of Las Vacas, which is in the hands of a band of Magonistas. It is the sures evidence of real peace, following closely on the heels of the signing of the con-

A message was received to-day from Ernesto Madero, who lives at Monterey,

He wired that the town of Las Vegas near by had been captured by the follow ers of Magon, the Los Angeles prophet

He said that a detachment of Federals was marching on the town and he asked that orders be sent to a large body of insurrectos in the vicinity to cooperate with the soldiers against the common

Ernesto Madero, who made this request, has accepted his appointment is an uncle of Francisco I. and head of the entire Madero interests in Mexico.

The entire Cabinet has now been decided and Arts goes to Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, who is an eminent throat, ear and nose specialist. He was the confidential agent of the revolution at Washington and is at present Minister of Foreign Relations in the provisional Govern-

Emilio Vasquez Gomez, brother of Francisco Vasquez Gomez, is to be Min-

The portfolio of Justice was offered to Vasquez Tagle, a Mexico city jurist, who refused it on account of ill health. Prob-

Hernandez, a cousin of Madero, and Pino Suarez, present provisional Governor of Yucatan and Minister of Justice

The Minister of Fomento will be Manuel

Communications and Public Works will be placed in charge of Manuel Byuilla,

The War and Navy Department goes liked by the entire Mexican army. He haps there will be some loophole against the Turks. Garibaldi says the Turks are now attempting to extradite his father for trial on the charge of having fomented the revolution. He says he and his father did start the Albanian revolt several years ago, but this time they have nothing to do with it. They may take a hand in it, however, he says.

DR. GOMEZ'S FORECAST.

Complete Tranquillity in Mexico by End of

June The New Programme. SAN ANTONIO, May 23. Dr. Vasquez

Gomez, who is slated for Minister of Edu-

Calero, a lawyer and a partner of Vera Estanol, present Minister of Public Instruction in the Diaz Cabinet.

a civil engineer and journalist.

Government

ister of Gobernacion, or affairs of the

The portfolio of Public Instruction assist the Federals in any way possible.

as Minister of Finance for Mexico.

The rebels have been ordered to Indestructo de Luxe Trunks at Saks' only

The obvious claim of the Indestructo Trunk is indestructibility. and it never fails to qualify. Several years ago one of our Indestructo Trunks dropped in one day to see us after a trip of 30,000 miles. Just wanted to say howdy and get a few scratches removed.

A few days ago we received a new shipment of these celebrated trunks, including all the latest models, and they are awfully anxious to get aboard and show you what tough customers

Thief feature of an Indestructo Trunk is its unique method of construction. Built entirely of multi-ply wood put together and strengthened by a special process which so unites every part of the trunk that it really amounts to solid one-piece construction.

Inner construction is devised so as to give a maximum of space, but it is too hot to bore you with specifications. Anything as hard and callous as an Indestructo Trunk makes dry reading.

But for traveling, it is a marvel of lightness, and beauty and strength and rigidity and portability and capacity and endurance and anything else that you can apply to a trunk that is happiest when it is roaring down a gangway or hurtling into a steamer hold.

Indestructo de Luxe Steamer Trunk 36 inch. 22.50 Men's Indestructo de Luxe 14 Trunk 36 inch 26.50 40 inch. 27.50 Women's Indestructo de Luxe Dress Trunk 36 inch 30.50 40 inch .. 31.50

Broadway

Saks & Company

It will then devolve upon the Legislatures

It will then devolve upon the Legislatures to name new Executives. This is urgent, he says. In the States of Sinaloa and Sonora there are no authorities except in certain small districts.

Señor Carranza will have charge of the pacification of the States of Coahuila Nuevo Leon and Tamaulipas. He will undertake this immediately upon the resignation of Diaz. He says the country will be absolutely at peace except for the operations of a few bandits by the end of June.

FLIGHT RACERS REACH SPAIN.

eral district. He is highly respected and Garros Lost in a Fog. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN PARIS. May 23 .- The second stage of the Paris to Madrid aeroplane race, for which the Petil Parisien offers a prize has always been a stanch supporter of Diaz, under whom he participated in the war aga inst the French invaders.

The Foreign Relations Department will be placed under a sub-secretary appointed by President de la Barra. The man will probably be Victoriono Salado Alvarez, the present sub-secretary and one of Mexico's most prominent men of letters. of $20,000 and to which Spanish aero clubs have added $10,000, was started this morning from Angouleme, where the entrants remained over yesterday. Word was received this morning at the day's flight ended at San Sebastian. in Spain. The weather was very foggy. but the aviators were early astir and Word was received this morning at the provisional Government Capitol in Juarez that Vice-President Ramon Corral has presented his resignation, to take effect at once. The telegram was received by Francisco I. Madero, Jr., from Alfred Robles Dominguez, special peace envoy in Mexico city. The news was taken to mean that the Vice-President's resignation was requested to precede that of President Diaz, which is expected to-morrow. awing. Roland P. Garros was the first to get away. He ascended from Angoulème at 5:15 o'clock and soared away through the mist in beautiful form and at a good height. Gibert got away five minutes later and then there was a pause until When President Diaz resigns Senor Vedrine took wing, at 7:10 o'clock. As Madero and his party will leave at once for Mexico city to advise with Señor de la Barra in the political reorganization of Mexico. Madero will resign immedi-ately after Diaz. Madero will probably each machine buzzed into the fog and for Spain in the direction in which the meter. fliers were headed to render them assistately after Diaz. Madero will probably take an insurrecto bodyguard with him. Every word of the peace pact was read before the soldiers of Madero's army.

ance should any have to descend. Spare parts and supplies of petrol were shrugged his shoulders and replied in the autos. To care for the

she would a servant, and as had been alleged by the other side. Her husband had once admitted to her, she testified, that all he wanted was her money. If he got that he would depart and never tween the United States and Great Britain was so worded as to admit of the adhesion of any other Power to the agreement.

She would a servant, and as had been alleged by the other side. Her husband had once admitted to her, she testified, that all he wanted was her money. If he got that he would depart and never tween the United States and Great Britain was so worded as to admit of the adhesion of any other Power to the agreement.

He was an extraordianry man, Miss of any other Power to the agreement.

She would a servant, and as had been alleged by the other side. Her husband the reading while more than 1,000 insurrectos and hundreds of civilians listened.

The affair began with a review of the troops on Calle Comercio. The soldiers of the rebel cause, nearly every one rigged in new khaki brown, stood at attention along the side of the street, forming a double line from Muarez to Lerdo avenue.

Osgood declared. He would treat her last word favious the reading while more than 1,000 insurrectos and hundreds of civilians listened.

The affair began with a review of the troops on Calle Comercio. The soldiers of the rebel cause, nearly every one rigged in new khaki brown, stood at attention along the side of the street, forming a double line from Muarez to Lerdo avenue.

By the providence of Chinhadua, did the reading while more than 1,000 insurrectos and hundreds of civilians listened.

The affair began with a review of the troops on Calle Comercio. The soldiers of the rebel cause, nearly every one rigged in new khaki brown, stood at attention along the side of the reading while more than 1,000 insurrectors and hundreds of civilians listened.

The affair began with a review of the troops on Calle Comercio. The soldiers of the rebel cause, nearly every one rigged in new khaki brown, stood at attention along the side of the reb Vedrine, although the last to start from home.

along the side of the street, forming a double line from Muarez to Lerdo avenue. In awkward fashion they performed military movements. Although the form was lacking and the men held their rifles at improper angles the general impression was military. The physical perfection of the men contrasted sharply with that of the dwarfs who composed the Federal army lately occupying the place.

Madero issued a statement to-day to the effect that he would soon write a book on the revolution.

His business concluded Judge Francisco Carbajal, the official peace envoy who represented the Diaz Government in the peace negotiations here, left to-day for Mexico city. Judge Carbajal will resume his duties as Judge of the Supreme Court of Mexico.

"The Juarez racetrack will be considered the size of the same as keno, poker and other gambling institutions." says Abram Gon.

when he landed there and he reported then that he had been flying aimlessly in the fog for two hours and had completely lost his bearings. Then he found it neces-sary to descend and get close enough to earth to distinguish the country beneath.

PARIS NEARLY WALKED. Taxi Drivers Demonstrated, but the I'm derground and Cabs Went On.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN

this evening except those persons who accommodated their business to the underground railways. They were compelled to walk because of the demonstration that is being made by the striking taxicab drivers, which is regarded as a forerunner of a general strike unless the municipality cuts off the recent increase in the tax imposed upon gasolene.

The strike started at 8 this morning and will end at 8 to-morrow. The inconvenience was not great until the rush for home began. Then the ancient flacre had its innings. At 7 this evening horse cabs were at a premium and could not be obtained at all in the Place de l'Opéra, the Rue de la Paix and other main streets. Men in patent leather pumps hailed or else in answer to the calls of the would-be fares would reply: "I am going to the stable; assez d'argent pour aujourd'hui." In English: "I have drivers who haughtily refused to notice made enough money for the day." One man standing near the Madeleine saw a taxicab awaiting the outcoming of its passenger. The meter had already recorded 8.35 francs. Asked if he wanted another fare, the driver replied:

"Certainly, monaieur, I will drive you disappeared racing automobiles headed, if you pay the amount registered by the

"How about your fare inside the church?" the driver was asked. He history as the night Paris nearly walked

Second Reading of Anti-Veto Measure Not Special Cable Despatch to THE S

LONDON, May 23 .- In the House of Lords this evening Lord Morley, the actint Liberal leader, moved the second reading of the Government's veto bill.

Lord Midleton, who was Secretary of State for India in the Cabinets of Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour, said the Op-position would not oppose the second reading of the measure, but intended to propose amendments.

Lafayette Left No Will.

Special Cable Desputch to THE SU LONDON, May 23. -It is reported that a ette, killed in the music hall free in Edin-burgh two weeks ago, has failed to dis-close a will, hence the entire property will go to his brother.

Men's Summer Suits in blues. grays and browns enlivened by bright pencil stripes-Blues, grays and blacks, plain and with self stripes -

Fancy Mixtures that include most of the colors of the rainbow and some the rainbow ne /er owned. All perfect fitting, $18 to $45. Lightweight Overcoats ... $16 to $42

F STAR OVER HALFA CENTURY

THE THOS. J. STEWART CO.

POSTPONE FIGHT IN THE LORDS. Bway cor. 46th St., N. 1. Phone 3806 Bryant. Erie cor. 5th St., Jersey City. Phone 185. FINE OLD MANSION BURNS.

> Sir Tatton Sykes's Sledmere in Flames Rare Pletures Saved. Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, May 23. S'e ime 'e, the Goorgan mansion of Sir Tatton Sykes at Malton

Yorksaire, was burned to-day.

The most valuable part of the art collection, containing portraits by Romney and other noted artis's, pottery and rare old books was saved, though a considerable part of the collection was lost.

Miss Carter Leaves Bates College.

LEWISTON, Me., May 23.—The students of Bates College learned to-day that Miss search of the effects of the Great Lafay-ette, killed in the music hall fire in Edin-the women's college, had tendered her burgh two weeks ago, has failed to dis-resignation. She will, become director of physical training at the State No College, Valley City, N. D., in the fall

"Fifty years reputation behind Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is good enough for me."

"So say we all of us."

The greatest endorsement that can be enjoyed by any product is that it has continued to bring health and happiness to millions of souls for more than fifty years, and has enabled the old to enjoy their vigor and activity up to and past the century mark. Five generations have used and endorsed it.